Season 2 Casting!

We're very excited to announce our new cast members for our second season of Green Gables Fables. It's been a long and crazy audition process, but we've found some new kindred spirits who are excited to meet you:

First up... Roy Gardner!

Marie Trotter will be taking on the role of Roy. With years of acting experience in men's roles, we've found her the perfect candidate for Anne's Prince Charming. Marie says, "I'm ready for all the fans to fall in love with me. Bow down to your King, ladies."

Next, everyone's favourite Philippa Gordon!

Skilled actress Lucy McPhee will take on the role of Philippa. "Like Phil," she says, "I'm gorgeous, intelligent, the envy of all who meet me, and somehow still lovable! I can't wait to tackle this really easy role, I probably won't memorize my lines at all. I'll just improvise in character as myself."

With our next casting decision, we decided to continue our practice as leaders in the literary web series genre by innovating with our acting and storytelling techniques. The roles of Davy and Dora Keith will be played by the same actress, the illustrious Mia Hills.

"I've always played just one role on stage before," says Mia, "usually a princess. But now, in playing two roles, I'm really challenging myself as a performer and pushing the meta boundaries of suspension of disbelief in vlog-style film-making."

Finally, the long-awaited Mrs. Lynde will debut in Season 2, played by stage and screen veteran Alicia Whitson.

"I like to knit," Alicia confides to us, "which makes me perfect for this character. Did you talk to my agent about the ice cream allowance in the budget?"

We hope you're as excited as we are about the casting for Season 2! Stay tuned to hear more about our upcoming vlog adaptation of "Our Mutual Friend" by Charles Dickens.

Casting Announcement: Part 1

Please welcome to the cast of Green Gables Fables for Season 2....

Vanessa Agnelli as Stella Maynard!

Vanessa is either currently taking pictures of food, singing musical theatre songs, or barking with her dog, Sandy. Also, she is trying (and failing) to stop herself from buying more books and marathoning more TV shows. When she is not feeding her addictions or making her friends/family wait as she photographs their food, Vanessa studies film, creative writing and acting. She is very excited to be a part of this web series!

Follow Vanessa on Twitter and Instagram and welcome her to the GGF family!

Marium is probably far too pleased by the simplest of things, like good chocolate, thunderstorms and eyeliner, but she believes it is an integral part of living a happy life—not that she doles out advice on how to live life or anything. Because that would be so cliché. She mostly consists of childish glee and deadpan humour.

Bernadette Medhurst as Marilla Cuthbert!

Staying busy and keeping happy is Bernie's mantra. When not busy acting in film and theatre, she is happy hanging out with hubby and four kids (who are all bigger than her and happy to remind her!). She also runs the office of their family business, enjoys gardening and going to the gym, (so she can keep up with everyone!).

Please give Bernadette a warm welcome to the GGF family!

Casting Announcement: Part 7

Please welcome to the cast of Green Gables Fables for Season 2...

Michael Merrithew as Royal Gardner!

When Michael is not working toward finishing his theatre training at Ryerson University, or pursuing his career in acting, he is enjoying life. As of recently he has been playing and making music (through singing and guitar), working on his opus (the story in his mind he is attempting to piece together), exploring places he's never been, and spending time with family and friends. He is very excited to work on this project with all the good people at Green Gables Fables and hopes you enjoy the show.

Please give Michael a warm welcome to the GGF family!

lilylacreag reblogged this from officialggf and added:

We're gonna suffer. And we'll be happy about it.

this is too perfect.

Though it does mean an adaptation from book-Anne's obsession with dark hair and dark eyes. Perhaps that's because tanner's already like that?

Whatever the tactic, I don't think the shift will be too hard...
