Looks interesting! Will definitely give it a shot.

Has potential, definitely. What tag are you guys using? GGF?

Oops, sorry, I was lying the first time! We'll just be using the Green Gables Fables tag, because GGF is a tag for a photo filter, so that tag is full of random photos and would be hard to sift through.

happilyeveradrianna asked:

Hi, I love Green Gables Fables already. I'm thinking of doing my own adaptation vlog for Romeo and Juliet and was just wondering how you guys got started with it.

Well, (and you can also look at our FAQ on our website) Alicia and Mandy were inspired by the LBD, and have always wanted to make something, and so Mandy built a website, Alicia wrote out an outline and scripts, and then they just started. We both used whatever resources we had for camera/lighting/graphic design, etc., so it's basically just whatever you can scrounge up. Do you have any questions specifically at how we got started?

2 notes Feb 19th, 2014

Due to unforeseen circumstances that we tried to ignore but probably shouldn't ignore anymore, we made a rather large mistake with our last video. The girl playing Diana in episode 8 (Alicia Whitson, one of the writers of the show) will not continue to act in the web series, due to time and other factors such as filming equipment and location, and we wanted to correct this issue before we progressed too far in the show. We are extremely sorry for the confusion this may cause, but we are going to film episode 8 again with our new Diana, and hopefully have it up sometime next week before episode 9 airs.

We are extremely sorry for this crazy creative error that occurred because of a time crunch and we hope that you'll be patient with us. We're still figuring out how all of this is going to work and getting into the swing of things, but we feel this will be best for the show in the long run. Thank you so much for watching and all of the wonderful feedback you have given us! We appreciate all of you so much.

If you have any questions, you can ask them here in our ask box, or on Twitter, @GGFables.

#Green Gables Fables

Hello everyone!

Here's an update on what's happening with Green Gables Fables within the next few weeks.

Episode 8 is currently in production, so this week there will be no new episode. However, Anne will be posting her very first Q and A video tomorrow!

Episode 8 will be released on March 12th (if everything goes as planned with no bugs!) and Episode 9 will follow on March 19th.

Thank you for being such an enthusiastic, patient, and understanding audience! If you have any questions or concerns, we'd love to hear them either in our ask box or on Twitter!

A Quasi-Hiatus

Hi everyone!

As you know, episode 8 is in production right now. We're sorry to announce that it will not be uploaded tomorrow as we had hoped. Schedules and filming issues conspire against us yet again.

We have decided to label this delay a hiatus- but it won't be for long. Best case scenario, Episode 8 will be up within two weeks. Worst case scenario, within a month. Transmedia will continue as usual, but there won't be a new video this week.

We're really, really sorry about this delay! We aren't a production company and have other commitments to juggle, and sadly we cannot always predict for obstacles. But rest assured that we are committed to this project and continue to work hard daily- even if you can't always see results online.

Finally- thank you, again, for your support! It is beyond what we could have imagined and every comment, tweet, and question is motivation for us.

As usual, if you have questions, please direct them to our ask or to our official Twitter account, @GGFables!

edspook asked:

Oh Anne, where art thou? Still hiatusing?

Unfortunately, filming the new version of episode 8 is taking a bit longer than we expected, but we are doing our best to get it done and should be back within the next couple of weeks!

nipponq asked:

Are you coming back soon? I think many of us GGF fans miss seeing Anne on Wednesdays.

We are definitely trying to be back soon! We miss her too.

So. I've just started watching Green Gables Fables. But I've always felt like a modern-day, not-PEI Anne - the overactive, whimsical imagination, the fascination with the world, the obsession with kindred spirits - and I just HAD to say that I think you do it perfectly. It's everything I always imagined and I Love it. Thank you for bringing this to life.

Thank you so much! It's so encouraging when we get messages like this. We love making the series and we're so glad you're enjoying it. Fingers crossed we continue to fulfill your expectations and surprise you! Some very exciting things will be coming up for Anne very soon...

Thank you so much! We're super excited for Gilbert too... ;) At the moment we're just focusing on Anne of Green Gables, but we do have tentative plans for adapting the next books. Emphasis on tentative! Our plans depend a lot on our personal circumstances and time and geography and money. Yes. Anyway, we'd really love to take the series further and we're already dreaming about it. We'll keep everyone posted!

We're now on Storify!

A common request on our survey was transmedia archiving so that everyone can catch up with the story in one place, instead of registering multiple social media accounts.

Our Storify will feature all transmedia activity from Twitter, tumblr, Instagram, YouTube, Vine, Blogger, and ThisIsMyJam. The only site not included will be Ruby Gillis' Pinterest, because it does not (at this moment) have story events.

We've already released our first two stories (Week 1 and Week 2 of GGF) and we'll be releasing the rest over the next month or so. After that, a new story will be posted every week to catch you up on what's been happening in Anne's world.

Happy Canada Day to all!

This message comes to you from the Canadian third of the GGF team, Marie.

Some neat GGF-related things have happened online recently so we'd like to share with you:

1. We're on Storify! From now on, weekly updates will be posted of all transmedia activity. Check out our first four stories here:

A New Foster Home

Anne Arrives

Not Wanted

Happy News

2. Reviews! Read what other people are saying about Green Gables Fables.

Reviewing 5 Popular Web Series Based on Books

Literary Retellings: YouTube

Green Gables Fables: Anne Shirley, Vlogger

*I'm posting all of the reviews I've found or been pointed to, if there are any others, please let me know! Also, we're aware that there are criticisms and compliments in these reviews- posting them anyway. We strive to make this show the best it can be, and we're so honoured that these writers take the time to watch our series with a critical eye. And, come on, how awesome is it to be on a list with LBD and KITR?

3. Check out this amazing Pinterest Board devoted to all things Anne and Green Gables Fables!

4. Really cool video from TheCollectedWorks about adaptation and web series: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=j9hpTuXl4o0>

5. Welcome to all AoJE fans! We are devoted fans to AoJE and were most happily destroyed by its conclusion. On that note, we had a subscriber surge of approximately 1,000. Wow. Crazy.

6. Note of business: We've had a lot of questions recently about the location of our series, so we'll just clarify here for everyone. Green Gables Fables is set in Avonlea, Saskatchewan, not Avonlea, P.E.I. And yes, Avonlea, Saskatchewan is a real place! Pretty awesome.

7. Thank you all, so, so much for your support. We've had an influx of positive, encouraging, enthusiastic messages within the past few days, and they really do mean the world to us. You are all so amazing.

Signing off,

Marie

Testing the Waters...

We have plans to launch a GGF fan-involvement project within the next few weeks, so we'd just like to gauge interest right now.

Hint #1: think KITR's fan canon experiment. Similar, but not the same.

We don't want to give away many details right now, but we'd like to see how many people are interested! This will impact how and when we launch the project.

Hi! First of all, huge fan of what you guys are doing! I'm really interested in applying but I had a few questions.

1. Am I correct in assuming that I don't have to live near the production team? 2. I'm not sure if I'll be able to be as consistent with my schedule when school starts, is that a problem? 3. Are there any openings for social media accounts management? I'd be more than happy to help with that! Sorry to bombard you :P
Thanks!

Thank you! Here are some answers:

1. You don't have to live near us! We have never met in person and work through 3 different time zones, so location is not really an issue.
2. It would depend on the position and your current level of schooling! We are all full-time students (at various levels) and have to balance this project with our other responsibilities. We totally understand homework commitments and the like, but obviously anyone who joins the team will have to devote a certain amount of time to the project. But it really does depend on the position and what your duties might be. =)
3. At the moment, no- but this is still in discussions, so stay tuned!

Welcome to the GGF Story Club! >

ggfstoryclub

We are pleased to announce the creation of the GGF Story Club.

Inspired by Anne's writing shenanigans with her Avonlea School friends in Chapter 26 of Anne of Green Gables (and the wonderful work of Kissing in the Rain), we've created this club to allow fans of our web series to have a say in...

This is it, friends!

17 notes Jul 29th, 2014

ABOUT

The GGF Story Club is an opportunity for fans of the web series Green Gables Fables to create their own canon.

We want to see what you believe about the story beyond Anne's videos and transmedia. What does Mrs. Lynde do when she's not judging people on Twitter? Where does Anne go to daydream in 2014 Avonlea?

How it Works:

1. Five prompts are posted every Wednesday, to which fans can respond with fics, drabbles, headcanons, fanmixes, gifsets, edits, fanart or anything similarly creative! There are no rules.
2. There are no deadlines. The weekly prompts are just posted as guidelines to get you thinking! You can post a fic about prompt #1 from Week #2 three months later.
3. We track the tag #ggf story club, and we'll reblog all posts (with commentary!) to this tumblr account so that viewers of the show can have a continuous archive of material to read.
4. At the end of each week, a summary of new canon material will be posted, with links to the fan-created posts.
5. The creators (Mandy, Alicia, and Marie) will be posting in the tag as well. Get ready.

Do I have to use the prompts?

No, not at all! We post the prompts weekly to generate discussion and incite brainstorming. But we absolutely encourage you to post outside of the prompts, and write about whatever burning canon ideas you have.

Can I post an edit/fanart/fanmix/drabble or do I have to post fic?

Of course! All mediums are welcome.

Is there a deadline?

Nope! Work at your own pace. As long as you post in the #ggf story club tag, we'll find your work and reblog it to this account.

Why are you doing this?

We want viewers to be fully immersed in the story, and we believe that creating their own canon for the series is an excellent way to become involved. Also, we're just extremely curious to see what you guys think about Anne's world. It's going to be fun!

Is this inspired by Kissing in the Rain's fan-canon experiment?

Absolutely, and we give them due credit. We are huge fans of KITR, and we loved reading the fan-canon created during the series run. We know that our series and KITR share many fans, so we hope there's interest on both sides for participating in our experiment! However, one major difference is that our project will not be time-sensitive or attached chronologically to the release of Anne's videos, seeing as she's already been filming since January.

Can I write fic about Anne living in a zombie apocalypse?

Certainly. In fact.... we may have a picture for that. Maybe.

INTRODUCTION TO PROMPTS

We can't wait to post our first Story Club prompts tomorrow! But before that... here's an introduction to how they'll work:

Prompt 1: This prompt will be about an event that has already happened in the show-and it'll be posted in connection to the chapter in the book that the series was modernizing.

Prompt 2 and 3: Transmedia related! These will related to tweets, Instagram pictures, tumblr posts, etc- elaborate on what happened (or what didn't).

Prompt 4: Surprise!

Prompt 5: This prompt will be about an event that has not yet happened in the show- so this is your chance to guess at how we'll adapt a future book event! Or just create your own headcanon. If you think Anne decides to become an electrical engineer instead of a teacher, go for it.

rebeccathehistorian asked:

I HAVE WRITTEN PREDICTIONS (SO I GUESS THEY'RE HEADCANNONS FOR THE LATER ONES?) OF GREEN GABLES FABLES UNIVERSE OF ANNE OF GREEN GABLES, ANNE OF AVONLEA, AND ANNE OF THE ISLAND. CAN I POST THEM UNDER THE GGF STORY CLUB TAG? ALSO, I HAVE A SLIGHTLY AU IDEA (THOUGH I HAVEN'T WRITTEN IT YET) OF EPISODE 15 (I AM NOT A MEDICAL PROFESSIONAL) WHERE ANNE AND GIL ARE ALREADY FRIENDS. I JUST THOUGHT YOU GUYS WOULD BE INTERESTED TO KNOW.

Absolutely! Any headcanons, drabbles, fics, whatever you want! Future, past, or present, prompt or non-prompt. We're so excited to read them. Especially the Episode 15 AU one...

Anonymous asked:

DO YOU THINK YOU'D EVER USE A HEADCANON SUBMITTED HERE?

Hmm... tough question. We're so astounded by the headcanons we see here because they're innovative and unexpected and amazing. Honestly, we've felt tempted.

From a writing perspective, we'd probably feel dishonest and a bit lazy by taking someone's headcanon on a major plot point to use in the videos. Although if we did decide to do this, the person who posted would get creative credit. This could enter grey area.

Our favourite part about making this show is our interactions with you- seeing your predictions in the tag, your reactions to our story decisions, your excitement at how certain chapters will be modernized, and your oh-so-perfect headcanons about Gilbert and Anne and Josie, etc. This is why we made GGF Story Club, because we wanted to get to know you better and learn about your responses to the story. And we just love fanfiction and fan involvement.

In summary, we're a lot more likely to use "Ruby's favourite nail polish colour is purple" or "Gilbert prefers Shreddies over Cheerios" than "Anne decides to stay at home after high school to take care of Marilla instead of going to university".

You should know, though, that we track the tags avidly and see everything. And sometimes, you guys make very accurate predictions.

NEW CANON FROM WEEK 1

Week 1 was amazing! Thanks to everyone who contributed stories, we loved reading them and we can't wait to see more.

And now, for the exciting reveals: new canon material based on what you wrote in your fics and drabbles. We're linking to the original author so that you can read their incredible work!

Note, however, that we're not commenting on the canon-ness of any Prompt 5 (future) material yet because those story points are still to be revealed!

Also, if it doesn't seem like we acknowledged a lot of canon material in your work, it's most likely because your work was already very accurate to our imaginings of Anne's life.

All that being said, here you are! What's canon:

From Prompt 1: Matthew meeting Anne for the first time. Parallel to Chapter 2 (Matthew Cuthbert is Surprised)

- Anne's usual social worker called in sick the day Matthew was supposed to pick up the boy, which is part of the reason for the mix-up. (x) and (x)
- Matthew is a hockey fan. (x)
- Anne fixated on the name "Cordelia" when she first read King Lear. (x)
- Matthew and Marilla were supposed to pick up a boy from Quebec named Martin Audette-Lapointe, 10 years old. (x)
- Anne's most recent foster home was in British Columbia. (x)
- Matthew likes coffee, Marilla prefers Earl Grey. (x)

From Prompt 2: What happened at Scrabble Night?

- Jane doesn't like to talk during Scrabble. (x)
- Gilbert wanted (wants?) to ask Jane about Anne, because he knows they're friends. (x)

From Prompt 3: The Chocolate Rabbit incident...

- Gilbert is a tad bit jealous of Charlie Sloane. (x)
- Gilbert is impressed by Anne's large fan base. (x)
- Ruby and Josie took Gilbert to the nurse's office after Anne hit him with the whiteboard. (x)
- Gilbert asked his dad about the Anne situation for advice. (x)

And here's a handy list of all the fics from Week 1, for your reference:

1. Prompt 2 by notaclichedsentence is found here. This is pretty much exactly how we imagined Scrabble Night going, and we loved the characterization of Jane and her perspective on her friends.
2. Prompt 1 by harmlesstea is found here. It'd be really biased and vain to comment on it because our producer wrote it. But shhh, we like the details about the foster system process and the poor boy who never met Matthew and Marilla.
3. Prompt 3 by neverthesamegirl is found here. Our head writer wrote this, so again we can't be very fair in our comments. But we love Gilbert's perspective and the speculation about Anne and Charlie.
4. Prompt 3 by justsupermione is found here. We love Gilbert's perspective and the description of when/where we first saw Anne... As with #1, pretty much exactly how we imagined that scene. Excellent and adorable characterization!
5. Prompt 1 by @dr-immy is found here. We think the differences between Matthew and Marilla and the dynamics of their relationship are described excellently in this fic!
6. Prompt 1 by justsupermione is found here. The way this fic modernizes L.M. Montgomery's original writing and brings in new aspects is perfect!

These next stories are interpretations of Anne's broken ankle incident... which has yet to be revealed (in specifics) in video or transmedia. The following is not a declaration of canon, just commentary.

7. Prompt 5 by justsupermione is found here. Great mention of Mrs. Lynde quoting Bible verses and Anne's friends calling Gilbert for medical assistance! And roller blades... interesting. Anne has become quite the daredevil in this version.
8. Prompt 5 by eldawenemileia is found here. Awesome references to Ruby's Pinterest obsession, the Truth or Dare fun on Twitter, and a great format (following L.M. Montgomery's original). We loved the obstacle course challenge!
9. Prompt 5 by fullfathom-5 is found here. Amazing character building. And the description of Josie is hilarious, as is the other characters' reactions to her. This fic was laugh-out-loud funny.

Please let us know if we missed anything! And do tell us what you think of the new canon...

PROMPTS: WEEK 3

We're loving how this side project is working out, and we continue to be delightfully surprised by your headcanons and fics!

1. Marilla meeting Anne for the first time. Parallel to Chapter 3 (Marilla Cuthbert is Surprised). We imagine Marilla was just as outraged in 2014 as she was in 1876!

2. Gilbert and rowing. Come on, we know you want to talk about this. Look at his Twitter for reference.

3. Anne gardening with Matthew. Look at her Twitter and Instagram!

4. Anne's first impression on her friends at school. What do Josie, Ruby, and Jane think of the new girl?

5. Ms. Stacy's first class with Anne. Parallel to Chapter 24 (Miss Stacy and Her Pupils Get Up a Concert). What subject? Are they kindred spirits at first sight?

Remember to use the tag #ggf story club so we can find your works! And the prompts, as always, are optional. We'd love to read Anne in a CSI: Miami AU, if that's your thing.

NEW CANON FROM WEEK 2

Here it is! Everything and anything that's canon from your amazing fics based on Week 2 prompts.

From Prompt 1: The poetry slam. Parallel to Chapter 19 (A Concert a Catastrophe and a Confession).

- Gilbert sees Jane more as a sibling than a love interest because they've been friends since infancy. (x)
- Gilbert went on a few dates with Josie last year, but it was never serious. (x)
- Diana sort of wishes Gilbert was reading to her at the poetry slam. (x)
- Anne's POV: canon. (x)

From Prompt 3: Gilbert learns his new nickname from watching Anne's video.

- Gilbert steepled his fingers when he's thinking. (x)
- Mrs. Lynde has a crush on Ralph Fiennes. (x)
- Gilbert spent a fair amount of time trying to find a way Anne calling him Voldemort could somehow be a compliment. (x)
- Gilbert did this the Monday after the video.
- Gilbert knew May had pneumonia before Anne did. (x)

We can't comment on Prompt 5, of course, but here's our commentary on the fics this week!

Prompt 3 by fullfathom-5 is here. This fic is entirely canon, and we laughed so much reading it.

Prompt 1 by @dr-immy is here. We loved reading from Gilbert's point of view, especially when hearing about his other relationships with the girls in Avonlea. And Diana's perspective was amazing as well!

Prompt 3 by justsupermione is here. This fic made us go sigh sadly over Gilbert's melancholy ponderings... but we loved it! Especially the Team Starkid references, as we're huge AVPM fans (and so is Gilbert).

Prompt 3 by harmlesstea is here. Can't really comment on this seeing as our producer wrote it. But it was very cute and very canon.

Prompt 5 by fullfathom-5 is here. We can't comment on canon or not, but this was amazing! Anne wearing the tea cozy or her "phantom's mask", Ruby being called in to save the day, the cabbages and kiwis as opposed to carrots...

And here is a fanmix by neverthesamegirl!

Prompt 1 by @rebeccathehistorian is here. All canon, pretty much! We loved the references to details from Diana's blog, like all the tea selections at the poetry slam and the styles of poems read.

Prompt 3 by rebeccathehistorian is here. Gilbert's medical perspective was illustrated excellently in this fic.

Thanks for all your stories and headcanons this week! We look forward to many more in Week 3 and beyond.

This adaptation of Anne of Green Gables is perhaps the most low-budget series, with half of its crew still in high school. But it's a charming adaptation of the first book, presenting Anne as a motor-mouthed high schooler and foster kid with excellent fashion sense. There have only been 20 episodes and Gilbert Blythe hasn't even made an appearance yet, but the writing is on par and Anne is hilariously lovable. (greengablesfables.webs.com) greengablesfables We're in @USAToday! Thanks to @htranbui.

watercolourtulips Hello, how are you? I have some questions about my favorite web series. Can we send emails to 'Anne' and have the questions answered in the little answering question bit she does? How long will the series be going in? Could it go until the 3th or 4th book? Would this come on DVD and were would it be available? Is there fan merchandise? And lastly can you make maybe five episodes a week? :) - a fan of fabulous fables!

watercolourtulips Maybe"

2. This interaction between Anne and Diana on Twitter.
3. The mysterious figure of Josie Pye. Tell us more about her. Twitter and tumblr for reference.

Our First Hangout!

We held our first Google Hangout this past Monday, August 18th.

It was so much fun "meeting" everyone who joined in: we had approximately 20 guests (though not all at once) from at least 3 countries! We appreciate everyone taking the time to talk with us, despite time differences and tech problems.

What we talked about:

- filming locations for the series
- the most difficult aspects of making Green Gables Fables happen
- how everyone discovered (or got sucked into) the Anne of Green Gables books
- favourite Anne/Gilbert moments or other favourite book moments
- movie adaptations: who has watched the Follows/Crombie films, which ones, the controversial third film, the awful BBC 1972 adaptation
- having suitable distance when writing for a series such as GGF (Alicia, our awesome Headwriter)
- the lovable Anne and why she is so popular as a heroine, in the original books and subsequent adaptations

We're hoping to host another hangout very soon and meet more of you! If you have feedback on the hangout, let us know so that we can make our next meeting more fun/efficient/engaging.

This is so sweet! Thank you so much.

I find it interesting that though a lot of us watch Green Gables Fables, we rarely have much to argue about/discuss, and the tag isn't particularly active. I feel almost like we're all so comfortable with Anne as a character and person that there's little to add - she's a vlogger we like, gets into silly age-appropriate antics, and her life is progressing beautifully.

All that just means that Green Gables Fables is doing a fantastic job of adapting Anne of Green Gables. And though I rarely have what to add, I want to make that clear: Green Gables Fables is nailling the low-key drama and pervasive sweetness of the original, all the while coming off as the most realistic casual vlogging of any adaptation. And while I maybe don't talk about it very often, it's really lovely and well-deserving of more frequent praise.

Here's some information about the survey we took a while ago:

officialggf.tumblr.com/post/961705620...

10:12 AM - 30 Aug 2014

The Survey

Some of you may recall that we took a survey earlier this year (much, much earlier) to get feedback on the show.

Our original plan was to make a video explaining the results of this survey, but we're currently working on multiple show-related tasks which are keeping us very busy.

Instead, we've decided to share a summary here, so that you still receive the same information, just without our gorgeous faces talking to you.

Note: At the time of the survey, we received 104 responses. We now have over 4,000 subscribers, so the following answers can't be counted as a reflection of the opinions of the entire viewership.

Question 1 asked your age. We weren't too surprised by the response: 42% of you are in the age bracket 18-24, which is our age bracket! 26% of you are in the age bracket 25-34, and 25% are in the age bracket 12-17, and 7% are in the age bracket 35-44. We have no viewers above 45 years of age. Well, we probably do. They just didn't answer the survey.

Question 5 asked which transmedia accounts you followed. Anne and Gilbert, as with their academic pursuits, were tied. Well, not quite. Anne on Twitter was the most followed character account at 77% of responses, with Gilbert following close behind at 76%. Most followed after that was Diana's Twitter at 67% of responses, and least followed was Diana's ThisIsMyJam account, with a beautiful 2% of responses.

Favourite character account: Gilbert Blythe.

Least favourite character account: Josie Pye.

5-Star Questions: We asked you to rate the different aspects of our series.

Mandy Harmon (Acting): 4.6 stars out of 5 stars.

Ravyn Hohneke (Acting): 3.62 stars out of 5 stars.

Cinematography: 3.88 stars out of 5 stars.

Visual Design: 4.41 stars out of 5 stars.

Average: 4.20 stars out of 5 stars.

Favourite Episode: Top 5 Flirting Techniques

Least Favourite Episode: Birthday Basket

Most Anticipated Character: Gilbert Blythe

Most Anticipated Moment: The Lily Maid

We're not sharing all of the answers on here simply because there's so much information, but if you want to know any of the other responses not featured here, just send us an ask!

SORRY, I DON'T UNDERSTAND WHAT THESE "PROMPTS" ARE FOR. ARE THEY A SUMMARY OF WHAT WILL BE IN THE VIDEO AND IN THE TRANSMEDIA FOR THE WEEK?

The prompts are just for fun! We really encourage fan fiction and fan participation, so we post these weekly prompts for viewers who want to share their thoughts on what happens off-camera for the people in Anne's world. At the end of each week, we post a summary of what's now "canon" based on what the viewers have written in the ggf story club tag.
